To Cure a Cold in One Day.
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c.
The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

A farm, to rent to a farmer for one or three years, cash or grain rent.
Call at this office for particulars.

P. O. Parsons, photographer, will take a few pupils in photography at the low rate of $15.00 per month.

Carl Seeley, deputy internal revenue collector, was in town Saturday looking after the interests of Uncle Sam.

Miss Jessie Bowring, of Merriman, is visiting in town this week, and will take the teacher's examination Saturday.

Despite the cold weather Saturday the teacher's association was about as well attended as usual by country teachers.

Mrs. Crawford's scholars made a lot of valentines last week and Tuesday had a very joyful time presenting them to their parents.

The three months old baby of E. W.
Reed, on the Niobrara, died Tuesday morning. Mrs. Reed was reported very ill but we are told she is recovering her usual good health.

What's the use sending away for goods when you can buy them so cheaply in Valentine. Notice Carlson & Anderson's advertisement and see what you can buy for a dollar.

A very pleasant progressive high-five party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wells Tuesday evening, at which half a score of couples enjoyed themselves. The favors were won by Mrs. E. Sparks and M. V. Nicholson, while Mrs. T.
C. Hornby and E. Sparks received the equivalent of a leather medal.

G. N. Davis, of near Simeon, was in town Tuesday.

New Goodrich Sewing Machines at T. C. Hornby's.

M. P. Brosius of the north table has purchased the Capt. Howell place, adjoining his present farm.

This office feels slighted. Neither the head push, the foreman nor the devil received a valentine this year.

Washington's birthday next Wednesday. How the father of his country would enjoy the politics of the day!

Dr. Lewis was called to Simeon a few days ago to prescribe for the eldest daughter of J. W. Burleigh who is ill of lung trouble.

John Britt was in from the table Tuesday and ordered his paper sent to the postoffice which was recently christened in his honor.

J. A. W. Johnson, of Reige, has been visiting the family of his father in the west part of town the forepart of the week.—Newport Republican.

G. F. Heine, of Hooper, member of the firm of Heine & Kroeger, stock raisers in this county, was in town yesterday looking after business interests.

Miss Fanny VanBuskirk returned from Whitney Thursday morning.

Mrs. Vivian Laurie arrived in the city last Tuesday morning and is visiting friends.—Gordon Journal.

The Rev. Oastler, of Gordon, will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian church one week from Sunday, exchanging with the Rev. J. C. Sloan who held services here Sunday.

The standpipe at O'Neill froze last Friday night, the hot water pipe at the Evans hotel froze and burst, and yet we are prepared to say that there was a hot time in O'Neill that night.

A license to marry was issued Saturday to Henry Worthington Holsclaw and Lucy A. Laten, of Rosebud.
The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's father, Lee Holsclaw.

The church having been finished at Wood River, and the guilds in good working order, Miss Childs will soon move to Holdrege to help build up the work there under Rev. Osborn.— Platte Missionary.

The writer made his first visit to Sioux City last Friday, and to say that he was surprised at the amount of business being done in that town is putting it mildly. He wishes Sioux City was in the state of Nebraska.

Dick Grooms was in from Niobrara Falls Monday, walking on air and telling his friends "It's a boy; born Saturday night; Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Reese were there." We congratulate Dick, who bought a primer for his son before he left town.

Frank Frush came up from Wood-lake Monday morning, to see a doctor.
His horse fell on him Sunday evening and bruised his right side, shoulder and limb pretty badly. No bones broken but Frank will not be able to do much work for a few weeks.

T. A. Coffey came in yesterday from the sand hills where he had been for several days this week on business.
Mr. Coffey says that cattle in the sand hills are doing fine and have suffered not a bit as a result of the severe weather during the past few weeks.—Chadron Journal.

Receipts at South Omaha yesterday were 2,549 cattle, 8,346 hogs and 8,676 sheep. Markets were slightly lower than the two days before, and but few stockers and feeders were offered. Those sold brought $4.25 to $4.55. Hogs averaged $3.58. Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago all reported the markets weak and about 10 cents lower.

The trial of State vs. Freeman, assault on the person of Wm. Ward, was heard in Judge Towne's court Monday before the following jury, by agreement: D. Peters, W. A. Pettycrow, Henry Taylor, H. W. Graham and Nels Polen. The case went to the jury about 3 p. m., and that body deliberated all afternoon and night and finally reported a disagreement.
A new trial will be held today.

While in O'Neill last week we had the pleasure of meeting John Hepkins, who is said to have a lead pipe clinch on the wardenship of the penitentiary when the present incumbent walks the plank. Mr. Hopkins assured us that the editorial brethren who chanced to apply for board at his hostelry would be well treated, and that all delinquent subscribers who stopped at his place would be kept in the dungeon.

Died, Monday morning, after an illness of five months, Mrs. E. D.
Cohota, at her home near Fort Ni-obrara. She leaves a husband and six children, the eldest of the little ones being 10 years of age and the youngest five months. It is not yet known what disposition the husband will make of the children, but we are told they will be sent to some home.
Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. M. Bates, yesterday, followed by interment at the Fort.
